DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-56 and 63-66, drawn to a delivery device with an actuatable loading unit.

Group II, claim(s) 56-62, drawn to a delivery device with a flexible diaphragm.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The special technical feature of Group I is an actuatable loading unit, the actuating member comprising a bi-stable (cutting) element which actuates the loading unit for delivery of substance which is not shared in group II. The special technical feature of Group II is a flexible diaphragm with a rupturing element for rupturing the diaphragm via generation of actuatable pressure of the mouthpiece which is not shared in group I.

3. This application contains claims in Group I directed to more than one species of the generic invention. If applicant elects group I, the following species restrictions are required. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Species II: Figure 5

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

4. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Species I: Figure 1: Claims 13-18, 22-24, 36-38 and 40-46

Species II: Figure 5: Claims 20-21 and 47

The following claim(s) are generic: 1-12, 28 27-30, 34, 39 and 48-55.

5. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The special technical feature of Species I is a restraining member comprising a tether which is broken on actuation is not shared in species II. The special technical feature of Species II is a restraining member comprising a gas support cushion which is vented on actuation is not shared in species I.

This application contains claims in Species I directed to more than one species of the generic invention. If applicant elects Species I, the following species restrictions are required. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Species A: Actuating member providing air flow in non-actuated state and close the air channel in the actuated state (Claims 31 and 35).

Species B: Actuating member providing air flow closing the air channel in non-actuated state and providing air flow in actuated state (Claim 32).

Species C: Actuating member providing higher air flow rate in actuated state than non-actuated state (Claim 33).

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.
